Knox Christian School is searching for an enthusiastic Christian to teach part-time in the Primary department. The successful candidate will exhibit a mature Christian faith, an ability to exemplify that faith in the classroom and in their instruction, an excitement for student learning and the ability to work well with a team. Candidates must possess a valid teacher's certificate, and preference will be given to those with experience in the Primary grades. The position encompasses roughly 40% of an instructional week. Please forward Christian education, cover letter, and your resume to Principal Paul Marcus at principal@knoxchristian.com by August 3, 2016.

Extra copies of the birthday / anniversary list for August may be picked up from the Welcome Centre.
