Please Note...

Ladies! Plan to attend the Women's Fall Conference on Saturday, October 3, 2015. Guest speaker Canadian Olympian, Krista DuChene. Theme is Going for Gold: Spiritually, Physically & Emotionally. Trulls is preparing a basket for the silent auction and also donations towards "Mobilize the Church" in Durham to support recovering victims of human trafficking. See the insert for how you can participate.

The Ride for Refuge is October 3rd. Why not join the Trulls Road Slowspokes who will be riding to raise funds for Gate 3:16. Our team is already registered. To donate/register for the ride <https://rideforrefuge.org/> or sign up at the Welcome Centre and Dave Hefford will be in touch.

Teacher Training & Plan To Protect Training: We value our children, youth and vulnerable adults at Trulls Road and because of that we offer training that will not only give tools to help guard and protect them it will help protect the teachers and leaders as well. The P2P training (policy and procedure) is open to everyone and contains valuable information for all. Dates and times are on the sign up sheet at the Welcome Centre.

Fall Kick Off Sunday Celebration! Please check out the insert and plan to attend. If you have a child between ages 7-15 who would like to participate in the Soap Box race, please pick up a waiver form at the Welcome Centre. See the insert for more details.

Pioneer Club program begins Mon. Oct. 6 for JK - Grade 5. Consent forms are at the Welcome Centre - talk to Tara Ally for more information.

Please note: Lynda Seeney's home telephone number is 905-720-3914.
